New York, April 16.-The New York-Boston game at the Polo grounds ended in a disgraceful manner this afternoon. Exceptions were taken by the spectators to the decision which allowed two runs b ing scored against the home team and to the putting out of the game of Gleason for kicking his glove to show his displeasure at the decisions.

Approaching the grand stand to eject a spectator who had hurled an except at him. Umpire Snyder was met by a volley of cushions, while curses and cries of "Lynch him," "kill him," rent the air. After a time Inim. Eil mm, Fent the air. After a time the game was resumed, but on its termination a squad of policemen had to escort Snyder from the grounds. The score:

Brooklyn 7, Philadelphia 6.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Gver 16.000 persons saw Brooklyn defeat Philadelphia this afternoon in the opening game of the season here. The game was devoid of any briliant features and was dull throughout. After the usual preliminary practice. Mayor Warwick, at 3:65, tossed a ball to Umpire Emslie and the game was on. The Phillies outbatted and outfielded the Brooklynites, but the latter managed to win by opportune hitting, combined with the errors of the Phillies. With the exception of Jones and Shindle who were a little off in their throwing, the Brooklyn team played a good game. McFarland and Delehanty each sent the ball over the right field wall for a home run. Attendance, 16.181. The score:

Baltimore 8, Washington 3.

Baltimore,Md., April 16.—The opening day in Palitimore for the national game was all that could be wished for as far as weather was concerned, and 6,518 persons passed the turnstiles to witness the contest between the Orioles and Senators. McJames pitched masterful ball for Baltimore, and had he been given proper support would have shut out the visitors. Their eight hits were scattered through six innings, and in the first Manager Hanlon's acquisition to his pitching corps struck out the three batsmen. Weyhing was easy in the first two innings, and off nine hits for a total of ten bases, the home team garnered six runs. After this disastrous opening he settled down and he and the team behind him played winning ball in the first laming, after having been presented with a diamond ring by his former associates, and retired in favor of Farrell. There was an entire absence of wranging and "kicking" throughout the game. Score:

To Charter Its Baseball Team.

Olathe, Kaq., April 16.—(Special.) Gardner, this county, for the past two years has had one of the best amateur baseball teams in Kansas. This year the fans have taken the matter up in earnest and have organized and applied for a charter under the name of the Gardner Baseball Association, with a capital stock of $50, at $1 per hare. J. B. Ward is president; J. M. Welker, vice president; J. W. Coieman, peresary; S. L. Sharpe, treasurer, and H. Poster, general manager. Two hundred shares were sold at once upon organi-ration, and all of them are expected to be sold soon. The team expects to make a splendid record this year, and will chal-lenge any team in Kansas for a game.

Three pitchers were tried by St. Joseph and all of them were hit freely. In all the Blues piled up twenty-two hits. Pardes twirled for Kansas City and he, too, suffered ten hits being made off of him. Perry and Hoover made their first appearance as Saints. The latter distinguished himself by driving out two hits. In the first inning the Blues scored six runs, triples by Frisbee and "Parson" Nicholson, singles by Williams and O'Hagan, a free pass to Vlox and inexcusable errors by Brashear and McRay contributing to make this possible. In the field the work of the Blues was not up to that of Friday. The score:

forming with a consistency never before known so early in the year.

To-day's feature at Montgomery park was the Tennessee Brewery stakes at seven furlongs. The race was won by the shifty 3-year-old High Jinks in a common gailop, while Timemaker second choice, beat Estaca a head for the place. Four of the six favorites won, and the talent on the whole had the best of the day.

There is much disappointment over the withdrawal of Bannock Burn from the Tennessee derby, which will be run on Tuesday next. The colt is suffering with catarrhal fever, and his owner. McGuigan, announces that he will not start for the classic event. Indications now point to a small field in the derby, and John W. Schorr's Lieber Karl will be a decided favorite. The summaries:

"The Boston team won so many games on sensational finishes in the eighth and ninth innings last season that they must owe their championship to downright pure luck. If the Orioles had played in such good luck they would have beaten out Boston in a hollow drive," says Jimmy McGuire.

Comiskey is a little nervous regarding the non-appearance of Geler, Gillen and Fricken. He needs all three, Gillen for third, Geler for the outfield and Fricken in the box. He would be able to get some good third base work out of Hollingsworth, bt the little fellow does not bat in Gillen's class, and Holly will probably be kept for utility work.

Manager Stallings has figured out his batting order as follows: Cooley, Douglass, Delahany, Lajole, Thompson, Cross. Of this sextet Cooley, Douglass and Thompson are lefthanded batsmen, and Delahanty, Lajole and Cross righthanded. It will be seen that two lefthanders lead off and are followed by two righthanders, then Thompson, a lefthander, followed by another righthander.

other righthander. Tim Hurst: "Chicago's much touted team does not look like a tight proposition to me. They can beat my gang two-stepping and waltzing and doing the society act, but if we can hit a little bit against them we will win two out of the three games from them in the opening series. I am not run-ning a beauty show or bon ton aggregation, but I think I've got a better ball team than Tom Burns has fallen heir to."

Tom Burns has fallen heir to."

Manager Schmelz, of the Millers, imagines he has a prize thrower in the person of old Tom Parrott, who played left garden for the Saints a short time. He bases his opinion on a remarkable feat once performed by this erratic player. When he was with St. Paul he used to throw a ball like a girl tossing a bean bag at a candy pull. No. Mr. Schemiz, Tom Parrott as a thrower is very much on the goldbrick order.—Milwaukee Journal.

Everitt and Decker are wild to go and order.—Milwaukee Journal.

Everitt and Decker are wild to gc and fight the Spanish. Everitt once ate a Spanish stew, and a pepper pod stuck in his teeth, giving him a hostile feeling to the whole Spanish nation. Decker's reasons are different. He got into a poker game with a Spaniard at Los Angeles and lost $57.45. When the game was over he turned his head, and there stood a Spaniard behind him with a looking-glass, tipping every card Decker had to the other Don.

President Hart is greatly pleased with President Hart is greatly pleased with the showing Chance is making. Manager Burns says that Chance was the best thrower he had even seen behind the plate, bar none. When Chance was on the way from california it was reported that he way from California it was reported that he was a little glow, but this did not prove to be the fact. He is, Burns declares, quick as lightning, and as accurate as an arrow. In Chance, Hart believes he has the future premier catcher of the League.

General Sporting Notes.

The peace-at-any-price tactics adopted by Bob Fitzsimmons have affected Fitzsimmons' vaudeville show receipts, and any he threatens to take on Kid McCoy, provided he defeats Ruhlin when they meet. Robert is fast finding out that a bird that can sing and won't carol is not worth his keeping, in the opinion of the American public. Common sense should have taught him this long ago. Unless he gets a match with some good man and wins a fight before next fall, he will not be worth shucks as a variety star next season. He may meet Jim Corbett again, though if they were matched again the betting public would make Robert a 5 to 4 favorite.

It is not unlikely that Walter Sanger, the
